

Custom clearance

With Rulewave handling your transport, there's no reason to fear Dutch customs. We organise all the formalities for you – free of charge. With no delays: it generally takes five minutes to get your documents approved.

Short lines, no delays

We have a direct link with Dutch customs. We use this online system to exchange, send and receive all the required information. The Dutch customs is currently striving to establish more horizontal supervision when dealing with reliable logistics companies. Rulewave has an engaged and open attitude and checks are rare. Consequently, getting your goods past customs has become a mere formality.
